Duluth Playhouse Welcomes New Director of Development

Duluth, Minnesota [May 14, 2019] — The Duluth Playhouse is thrilled to announce the hiring of Devin Stigsell as the organization's new Director of Development. It's a new position for the Playhouse but one they have been looking to fill for quite some time.

With the addition of the NorShor Theatre, the organization as a whole has grown exponentially, and with that came a new wave of opportunities for the Duluth Playhouse. As the Director of Development, Stigsell will take on sponsorships, advertising, fundraising initiatives, donor relations, and more.

"I couldn't be more excited to have Devin join our team," said Christine Gradl Seitz, Executive and Artistic Director of the Duluth Playhouse, "Her talent and enthusiasm is inspirational and will carry the Playhouse forward with new energy and ideas."

Stigsell looks forward to continuing to foster close ties with the Duluth community while creating new, creative and exciting opportunities for individuals and businesses to support the Duluth Playhouse.

"The Playhouse staff and entire board of directors really has done an amazing job at setting this position up for success," states Stigsell, "The opportunities are truly endless and I am so excited to partner with the team to bring forth some pretty impressive projects."

If you are interested in Sponsor, Advertising, or Giving opportunities, please reach out to Devin Stigsell at 218-733-7556 or dstigsell@duluthplayhouse.org.
